10422/1264/BM/'14 4.4 SUPREME COURT CASE
05-03-'14/4TH IMPLEMENTATION OF SUPREME COURT ORDERS IN CRP.NO.249/2012
IN CP.NO.1583/2012 TITLE "CDA THROUGH ITS CHAIRMAN & OTHERS VS MUHAMMAD HUSSAIN & OTHERS".

DECISION

The Board noted that Para-5 of the summary reproduces following judgment of Islamabad High Court in appeal No. 72/2011:

".....The appellant in ICA No 72 of 2011 obtained plots in sector G-10/4 Islamabad, but the said plots were not allotted to the appellants as employees of CDA and under any beneficial scheme of the CDA or FGEHF meant for the employees of CDA. It is noteworthy that the appellant had applied for allotment of plots in the said scheme advertised for general public wherein no quota was reserved for employees of CDA nor the said plots were allotted to the appellants out of any such reserved quota meant for employees of CDA. According to the decision of the Board, CDA employees as defined in the CDA Land disposal Regulation 2005, who are not allotted a plot / flat in Islamabad by FGEHF or CDA employees housing scheme either in their names or in the name of their spouses or dependent children were eligible to the allotment of plot under the scheme. Since the earlier plots were not allotted by the CDA to the appellants under any of its scheme launched and meant for its employees as such the appellant were with in their right to claim allotment of plots in their names as employees of CDA under the scheme of CDA and as such the impugned show cause notices issued by the respondents for cancellation of disputed plots allotted under the scheme are void, illegal and as such liable to be set a side.

We would, therefore set a side the impugned judgment and orders of the Honorable Judge in chamber dated 21-03-2011 and would , consequently, declare that the show cause notices issued to the appellant in respect of cancellation of plots allotted to them under the scheme are void and of no legal effects. The ICAs are accepted in the above terms with no orders as to costs"

The Board also noted that review petition filed by CDA in the Supreme Court of Pakistan against the judgment of Islamabad High Court in Intra Court appeal No.72/2011 has been dismissed and the said judgment has attained finality. The Board approved withdrawal of Show Cause Notices and issue the allotment letters of plots to following four (04) officers/ officials:-

1.	Muhammad Hussain
2.	Mr. Ghulzar Ahmed
3.	Mr. Qazi Fazal-e-Haq
4.	Mr. Abdul Rasheed

DECISION

The Board noted that Para-5 of the summary reproduces following judgment of Islamabad High Court in appeal No. 66/2011:

".....Perusal of record would reveal that appellants in ICA No 66 of 2011 were allotted plots in the scheme of CDA in Model village Humak in the year 1980-81. The appellant in ICA No 72 of 2011 obtained plots in sector G-10/4 Islamabad, but the said plots were not allotted to the appellants as employees of CDA and under any beneficial scheme of the CDA or FGEHF meant for the employees of CDA. It is noteworthy that the appellant had applied for allotment of plots in the said scheme advertised for general public wherein no quota was reserved for employees of CDA nor the said plots were allotted to the appellants out of any such reserved quota meant for employees of CDA. According to the decision of the Board, CDA employees as defined in the CDA Land disposal Regulation 2005, who are not allotted a plot / flat in Islamabad by FGEHF or CDA employees housing scheme either in their names or in the name of their spouses or dependent children were eligible to the allotment of plot under the scheme. Since the earlier plots were not allotted by the CDA to the appellants under any of its scheme launched and meant for its employees as such the appellant were with in their right to claim allotment of plots in their names as employees of CDA under the scheme of CDA and as such the impugned show cause notices issued by the respondents for cancellation of disputed plots allotted under the scheme are void, illegal and as such liable to be set a side.
